A Quarrel At The Grave.

N. Y. Times.

A more disgraceful scene has seldom been witnessed in a civilized community than that which occurred at the funeral of Mr. Rudolph Herr, the unfortuate lawyer who committed suicide in Fourth Place last week, while laboring under mental depression which made him morally irresponsible for the act. It appears that the unhappy gentleman had been born and reared in the Jewish faith, but that since he arrived at mauhood he had ceased to attend the public worship of that religion or to observe its facts and festivals. He had married a Presbyterian lady who, with their children, attended the Rev. Dr. Lyman's Church, at the corner of Court and President streets. At the request of the widow that clergyman agreed to perform the funeral services, and after a brief prayer and impressive address he stated that he would read the burial service as adopted by the Presbyterian Church. A brother of the deceased hereupon rose and declared that he would allow no such service to be read, as his brother was a Jew and not a Christian. The widow insisted that her husband had died a Christian, and had long ceased to be a Jew at all. The altercation proceeded to such length that Justice Bloom, a former partner of the dead man, caution them that if there were any breach of the peace he would have to see to it. The ejectment of the fanatical brother was suggested by friends of the family who were present, but the Christian minister took the wise course of refraining from the further reading of the Scriptures. The brother then brought forward a friend, who, standing at the head of the casket, read some sentences in German, and the remains were then taken to a receiving vault in Greenwood Cemetery, Mr. Herr still angrily declaring that he would take legal measures to gain possession of the remains, have the full Jewish ritual performed over them, and see that they were buried in a Jewish cemetery.

This moves the truly good editor of the Brooklyn Eagle to remark:

To the body that lay there in the awful impassability of death, what mattered it whether the Christian presbyter or the Jewish rabbi pronounced the benediction? To the spirit, if haply it was conscious of the scene, how infinitely little must the wrangling religionists have appeared in their flight about the God who is "not the "God of the dead but of the living." "I pass," said Charles the First to Bishop Juxon on the scaffold, "from a temporal to an eternal "kingdom, where no disturb-"ance can have place." There are no religious rows in heaven and conflicting dogmatists must lay down the sword and spear of bigotry when the spirit enters on "the Great Unknown."

"Our little systems have their day;
They have their day and cease to be;"

and a very good thing it is that they do so. Calvin's "Institutes," the Westminister Confession, the Thirty-nine Articles, the Missal and the Breviary, the Catechism of Trent, the Five Books of Moses, the Koran of Mohammed, and the Talmud of the Jewish hair-splitters, are all waste paper when the Rubicon is crossed that divides the world of human dogmas from the world of divine light.

"GATH" has been interviewing on the question of Grantism, and the result is the disclosure of the feeling on the part of some significant Republicans that Hayes' predecessor will be his successor, if not in the White House certainly in the canvass. Some Republican papers speak slightingly of the Grant movement, but it is plain enough that they will not be much astonished if it shall sweep the party before it. The trouble with the Republican party is that its strong men are strong enough to defeat each other, while each is so unpopular with great bodies of the American people that if he received the nomination it would profit him nothing.

THE Goldsboro Messenger intimates that the News is guilty of "Cheap Johning" in offering to do the State printing at 40 cents. Perhaps the editor of the Messenger does not know that 40 cents is the average price paid for that class of work throughout the United States. An examination of the acts of the General Assembly of other States will enlighten the editor of the Messenger. When the News talks retrenchment to the Legislature it means it. As an earnest of its sincerity it proposes to commence the pursuing process in its own little front yard. It is a novelty perhaps, but the News is in earnest nevertheless.

HAW RIVER, N. C., Jan. 7, '79.

MR. EDITOR: As the Legislature convenes to-morrow, and various clerkships have to be filled, we don't think they could elect a better and more suitable man as Enrolling Clerk than Mr. James H Webb, of Alamance. Mr. Webb is a true and tried Democrat, very popular, and well known throughout the 4th and 5th Congressional Districts. He is well fitted for the position, and a working Democrat. Give the young man of the party a showing. B. F.

SET UP YOUR BAR AT HOME.—Barkeepers in this city pay, on average, $2 per gallon for whiskey. One gallon contains an average of sixty-five drinks, and at ten cents a drink the poor man pays $6.50 per gallon for his whiskey. In other words he pays $2 for the whiskey and $4.50 to a man for handing it over the bar. Make your wife your barkeeper. Lend her 2 to buy a gallon of whiskey for a beginning, and every time you want a drink go to her and pay ten cents for it. By the time you have drank a gallon she will have six dollars and a half, or enough money to refund the two dollars borrowed of you to pay for another gallon of liquor, and have a balance of two dollars and a half. She will be able to conduct future operations on her own capital, and when you become an inebriate, unable to support yourself, shunned and despised by all respectable persons, your wife will have money enough to keep you until you get ready to fill a drunkard's grave.

Official statistics represent that during the past two years some seventy insurance companies have passed out of existence.

CONGRESS.

By telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—SENATE—A large number of petitions were presented during the morning hour, among them many from women in various parts of the country, asking Congress to enact such legislation as will make effective the anti-polygamy law of 1862; also from various persons protesting against the passage of the pending bill to revise, amend and consolidate the laws relating to patents and against the transfer of the Indian Bureau to the war department. All were referred to appropriate committees.

Bills were introduced as follows:

By Hamlin, of Maine, for the more efficient collection of postal revenues. Referred to the committee on post-office and post-roads. By Booth, of California, for the interchange of subsidiary silver coin and United States notes. Referred to committee of finance. By McDonald, of Indiana, to authorize the taxation outstanding legal tender notes of United State.

Edmunds, of Vermont, said: "In this glad morning of the New Year, when there was peace, and joy and hope everywhere, he thought it best to offer a resolution tending to cement more perfectly the good will and harmony now existing all over the country. He therefore submitted a resolution declaring that in the judgment of the Senate the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the Constitution of the United States, have been legally ratified and are as valid as the other parts of the Constitution. That it is the right and duty of Congress to enforce such amendments by appropriate legislation and the duty of the executive department of the government faithfully and with diligence to impartially execute such laws. That it is the duty of Congress to appropriate money to that end, and instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill for the protection of the rights of citizens and punishment in fractions thereof. (Laid on table at request of Edmunds, to be called up hereafter.)

Voorhees, of Indiana, during the morning hour called up a resolution submitted by him early in the session, instructing the Judiciary Committee to look into the expediency of making the trade dollar a legal tender, and providing for its recoinage into standard silver dollars. He addressed the Senate at length in favor of the resolution, denouncing the trade dollar as fraudulent money, which having failed in its mission abroad had returned home to cheat honest people of this country. The amount of such dollars coined was thirty-five million dollars larger than the people had any idea of. He reviewed the course of Secretary Sherman, and said there was deep seated hostility to silver money of every kind on his part. Silver, as money, was not receiving fair play at the hands of the present administration, and those who draw their inspirations from it. He referred to the silver bill passed at the last session, and said the execution of this popular law was in the hands of its most conspicuous and pronounced enemy. He referred to the action of the New York and Boston banks in November last, in regard to specie resumption and silver dollar, and denounced it as rebellious against the lawfully constituted authorities of the government. He predicted the final triumph of the silver dollar, and said the people insisted that specie resumption should not rest on gold alone, but should be as strong as the reunited coinage of silver as well as gold could make it. At the conclusion of Voorhees' remarks the resolution was laid over without action being taken thereon.

Beck, of Kentucky, submitted the following: Resolved, that a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury, in answer to a resolution of the Senate, passed Dec. 3rd 1878, relative to the amount of silver coin received in payment of customs dues during the current fiscal year and the disposition which has been made of it, be referred to committee on finance, and said committee is authorized and directed to make such investigation as it may deem necessary to ascertain whether the laws relative to the payment of customs dues and the payment of interest on the public debt with coin received therefrom, have been and are being complied with, and report by bill or otherwise. Laid over, upon objection of Edmunds.

Sargent, of California, who has been ill some weeks, occupied a seat in the Senate to-day for the first time this session. Sharon, of Nevada, also appeared for the first time. The Senate at the expiration of the morning hour, resumed the consideration of a bill to revise, consolidate and amend the laws relating to patents and Christiancy spoke in favor of the bill.

Hon. Alex. Stevens had an attack of neuralgia of the bowels last night and is in worse condition, physically, than he has been for years. He is still confined to his room.

The Senate at 3 o'clock a brief executive session was held. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Acklen, of Louisiana, made a personal explanation in regard to the scandal attaching to his name for the alleged seduction of a young lady in Lousiana, and presented a resolution for appointment of a committee of three members to inquire into and report upon the charges made against him. Defeated, on the ground that it did not embrace the question privilege.

The Ways and Means committee met to-day but transacted no business other than to decide that parties desiring to be heard with regard to the tax on sugar be given an opportunity, commencing to-morrow.

The Senate committee on finance held a meeting, devoted to the informal discussion of a bill that provides for the issuance of treasury certificates of deposit to any person depositing coin or U. S. notes. Said certificates to bear interest at 3.65 per cent per annum and to be convertible at any time within one year from their date into four per cent bonds, issued upon the retirement of the six per cents. No action was taken, but the general feeling was highly favorable to the measure. The committee are desirous to dispose of the tobacco tax bill as soon as possible, and will at an early day conclude the bearing of arguments on the subject. Arrangements will probably be made to hear the commissioner of Internal Revenue during the week.

A resolution was adopted directing the Judiciary Committee to investigate the charges against Henry W. Bladgett, Judge for the Northern District of Illinois.

The Geneva Award bill was considered and laid over till to-morrow.

Several bills were introduced after which the deaths of Representatives Douglass and Williams were announced and the House adjourned.

British Labor Troubles.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Jan 7.—A despatch from Barnsley to the Times, says, a strike of the miners of South Yorkshire and North Derbyshrie will be not near so large as at first anticipated. It is expected that not more than six thousand operatives will go out on a strake A Strike has begun in the wise trade here which may assume serioous proportion throughout the country if some agreement between employers and workmen is not come to. The masters contend that if a reduction of wages is not agreed to the works must be closed, as given wire can be obtained cheap than English manufactories can make. The men contend that the reduction demanded is excessive.

Strike in Coal Mines.

POTTSVILLE, PA., Jan. 7.—A strike occurred this morning at the Cameron Colliery on the mineral Railroad and mining companies colliers at Shamokin. Several days since the men were notified of a reduction which took effect this morning. This is the longest colliery in that region and causes about 400 men and boys to be idle.

About the Impeachment of Holden.

Correspondence of the News.

I have seen two charges against Gov. Vance brought forward by the Merrimon advocates, and only two, I believe that affect his position to the Democratic organization. The 1st. is, that after the party determined in caucus upon the impeachment of Gov. Holden, Gov. Vance used his influence, or rather agreed to use his influence in opposition to the impeachment. The 2nd. is that after the defeat of the Convention bill in 1871 by the two-thirds vote, the caucus of the party determined on the call of a convention by a majority vote, and that Gov. Vance in a conversation with some one in Washington City pronounced the convention call a humbug. The writer of this was at the time a Senator and if there was any caucus called on the impeachment question he knows nothing of it, and certainly would not have attended had there been such a call. He will say however that he does not believe that there was any caucus determination about the impeachment trial.

As to the 2nd charge, the writer of this was present in the Democratic caucus, and took an active part in the caucus against the call of the convention by a majority vote, and speaks advisably when he tells the public, since caucus secrets is the order of the day, that the determination of the caucus was very decidedly against the majority call and that the bill was introduced against the recommendation of the caucus. Notwithstanding your correspondent's views then were that it was unadvisable to call the convention by a majority voto in the Legislature, as the caucus determined after the bill was introduced I advocated it, in the interest of harmony and voted for it both in the Legislature and at the ballot box. [And so did Gov. Vance.] I say this in vindication of the truth of history. "Let justice be done though the heavens fall." You can use my name whenever necessary. I know whereof I speak. No one who knows me will question my fealty to the party. A.

Theatrical Gossip.

Katie Putnam has again failed—to pay her company.

A good figure and a handful of personal beauty often covers many shortcomings in an actress.

Who wouldn't be a stage manager for Fanny Davenport? She gave him a gold watch on Christmas.

Christine Nilsson, who is at present in Paris and doing nothing, has been offered an engagement at the French Grand Opera House.

When Theodore Thomas left New York, the loss was only equalled by Cincinnati's gain, for there is no one here at present who can begin to fill his place.

May Fiske has quiet and fascinating ways. Her agent offended her in Montreal the other day, and she evidenced the command she has over her feelings by hurling a pitcher at him. The manager just dodged it in the nick of time.

Mary Anderson got hold of a Louisville reporter the other day and gave him a good dose of "what I know about Sarah Bernhardt." Why not hire a hall, and discourse a little; there is neither money nor profit in free lectures to newspaper people.

Colonel John T. Mulberry Sellers Raymond got on his dignity in Baltimore the other day. The proprietor of Guy's Hotel excited his ire. He smote the aforesaid proprietor, who returned the compliment with interest. And now Sellers consoles his wounded feelings with a couple sf square feet of adhesive plaster.

Dramatic criticism in the near future: "The part of Cordelia, perhaps the most affecting of all the mighty master's creation, was sustained by a princess robe of white poult de soie, trimmed with large bunches of ecru, turned up and cut bias; diamond ornaments. The unyielding, never-wavering purpose of a fiendish Goneril found an admirable exponent in a heavy robe of black organdie with fan tail, knife plaiting and pompadour corsage, and the other parts were excellently rendered by the respective costumes sustaining them, a more detailed description os which is, owing to the crowded state of our columns, deferred to a more fitting opportunity."

Clara Louise Kellogg, the American prima donna, gives the following story of one of her bracelets: "Years ago, when I was in England with my father and mother, the Duchess o Somerset showed us a great deal of attention, and among other guests we were invited to meet were the Duke and Duchess of Newcastle. They, of course, entertained a great deal, and during the races at Brighton filled their house with guests. The first day or two of the races the Duke, who had bet heawily and lost immense sums, and being a little superstitious, telegraphed an invitation to my parents and self to come down, believing, he added, that I would bring him luck. We went, and, funny enough, the day after I arrived, he won $50,000, and on the eve of my departure for America, sent me this souvenir, with a graceful note." "Years ago!"

INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS.

A Broad State Policy Needed.

Correspondence of the News.

The earnest purpose you are continually manifesting in your ably conducted paper to advance the moral, intellectual and material interests of the State; and your constant effort to awaken in the minds of the people a commendable State pride, a feeling very near akin to patriotism, if indeed, it is not the very parent of so high virtue, emboldens me to ask a little space in your columns to endorse the views presented in a recent number by a correspondent who writes over the name, "Cape Fear." It would be well for the State if our legislature, and our schems of public improvement kept constantly in view the interest of all sections and tended to the common good, but unfortunately much if our legislation has looked to mere local benefit, any many of our railways have been so built as to carry from our own towns and cities the commercial products of our sail and industry and pour these into other States. The road from Greensboro to Danville and even the Raleigh and Gaston road pour our wealth into Virginia, and the Spartanburg and Asheville, and the Chester and Lenoir, and to a certain extent the Statesville and Charlotte railway pour our wealth into the ports of South Carolina.

We need railways more thoroughly North Carolina roads. We need a road from the North-western part of the State to the South-western part. We need a railway from Mount Airy at the foot of the Blue Ridge to Wilmington down by the Sea, passing by and tapping the Yadkin River and running through Winston, Greensboro and Fayetteville. It was the fortune of Fayetteville, within the memory of men scarely past the prime, to command the trade from the North-western part of the State, but now some goes to the Virginia and Tennessee railroad, some to Danville and some to South Carolina, and the old town of Fayetteville is left to languish in business although its people are still as good as the best. If such a line of railway as Cape Fear suggests were completed the old activity of Fayetteville would at once return, Wilmington would greatly increase her commercial prosperity, Greensboro would revive, the thrift of Winston would be permanently secured, and the productive capacity of the pent up Valley of the Yadkin and its tributaries would be developed and the whole State would reap benefit.

If you will look at any good map of the State you will see that from Wilkesboro, the Yadkin River runs North-east until it reaches the eastern boundary of Surry county and then turns suddenly South, just about Bean's Shoals when it breaks through the depression in the Brushy mountain range, which runs nearly parallel with the Blue Ridge from the Southern boundary of the upper part of the Valley of the Yadkin, "the rich and fertile" section. Now a direct line from Mount Airy to Winston would almost touch the angle which the River makes at Bean's Shoals. The feasability of making the Yadkin River navigable for boats of light draft to Wilkesboro, at small cost, has been time and again shown by actual survey, and the recent survey by the General Government only confirms what was known before. The river then, if cleared of a few obstructions would afford an outlet for the Valley down to Bean's Shoals, and being touched by the railway from Mount Airy down the Valley of the Arrarat, a noble stream—abounding with finest of water power, cutting its way through vast beds of iron ore, there would be opened up a way not only for the products of the Valley of the Yadkin, but the rich regions at the head of the Dan, and the meadows of New River would pour out their wealth. Then instead of sending out of the State we would draw from Patrick, Floyd, Carroll and Grayson counties in being used to build up Winston, Greensboro, Fayetteville and Wilmington, to say nothing of advantages to other points. Even now your city is often supplied with beef and butter by Maj. Vaughn's constituents in Alleghany; but you know not of their great cabbage heads, fine apples, cranberries and potatoes, unless you have been partakers of their home hospitalities. Raleigh buys hay from Maine, some times, I hear, and so do Wilmington and Fayetteville too. The up country, mountain country can supply you with just as good, and if the transportation can be made light, at lower prices.

Then too the people in this mountain country need salt, and they use sugar and coffee and molasses; notwithstanding their abundant supply of the best of milk and butter. They buy such things now in New York, or Baltimore or Richmond. They want to buy them in Wilmington and Fayetteville. They not only want to buy and sell, but they have pure air and cool pleasant waters in the summer time and they want their friends from the low lands to come out of the hot rain water regions in the dog days and to bring their wives and children to the mountains.

THE LIQUOR LAW QUESTION

"The Only Way Under Heaven to Save the Drunkard."

Correspondence of the News.

WARRENTON, Jan. 5.

Much has been said about public schools in the columns of your excellent paper, and doubtless much light thrown upon this important subject, but allow me to say, I seriously doubt both the morality and the financial wisdom of the adoption of the "Moffett Bell Punch," as suggested editorially in your issue of December 24th. S, your Wilmington corresponden', under date of December 30th, seems to occupy both sides of the question. He first throws hot shot into your position and then winds up by saying, "I am with you in favor of the Moffett Bell Punch."

Now sir, there is no other way under Heaven to save the drunkard from his drunkenness, or to save others from becoming drunkards, but by abolishing the trafic.

The suppression of the liquor traffic is the most desirable and advantageous thing to be accomplished. The moral sense of society is becoming more and more alive to the enormity of the evils resulting from the traffic each year. Then whatever hinders or retards this growth of public sentiment in this direction, pushes further in the future the final deliverance of society from this curse, and continues the destruction of human happiness and human character just that much longer.

The evil resulting from this traffic has no equivalent in dollars and cents. Then what quer action lis taken by the Legislature looking to an increase of revenue to the State by the permission of this business, is simply an act to raise revenue at the expense of the character and happiness of the people.

If you doubt that the tendency of society is to wake up to the fact that the liquor traffic is an evil and that its suppression is only a matter of time, just note the language of events transpiring around you. Kansas has elected a governor who declared himself a "Prohibitionist" and made many prohibition speeches in his canvass, by a very large majority. Notwithstanding, the liquor dealers and their influence were solid against him. Connecticut has prohibited the traffic in most of her important towns and in both her cities east of the Connecticut river. The prohibition party is actually organized in twenty-three States. In the late elections, but of seventeen States, fourteen had prohibition tickets in the field. A few persons were elected as prohibitionists. In the majority of States the party is in its infancy and in many cases did not make nominations, but combined on the sober men as in the case of a congressman in Missouri.

Then again, sir, if you doubt that the effect of the traffic is evil and that prohibition is a blessing, I ask your a tention to the figures in a few instances. From the best sources to which we have access, we gather that more than one thousand persons die from the effects of liquor annually in North Carolina. And as the army of drinkers and drunkards does not diminish, we conclude that at least one thousand new drunkards are made each year. Many millions of dollars are squandered each year in the State for liquor, beside the enormous waste of talent, virtue and happiness. The number of persons convicted of crime in North Carolina in one year ending June 1st, 1870, was one in every 818 population, while in Maine, there was one in every 1,444 of population.

In Northampton county, this State, as I am informed by a thoroughly reliable and trustworthy citizen of that county, prohibition has reduced the cost of the prosecution of crime more than one half, and it has reduced the average number of prisoners in the county jail more than three-forths That the condition of the poorer classes of society has been vastly improved and many who were drunken and improvident are now useful and self-supporting citizens The same is true of Greensboro and other portions of this State and of every other State where the law prevails and is enforced.

Now sir, any action on the part of the State legislature by which the revenue to the State is increased from the liquor traffic furnishes an argument in the hands of the traffic, in favor of its continuance, that appeals to such forces as greed of gain, indisposition, to oppose a popular habit, prejudice and appetite, which force government about as much as reason, in all such questions. In the name of humanity let nothing be done to retard the approach of deliverance from this curse of all curses.

Correspondence of the News.

GREENSBORO, Jan. 7, '79.

My pen must bear the sad news of the death of Miss Davie, one of the sweet daughters of the late Rev. John A. Gretter, (for many years the pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this place) She departed this life Saturday night, of that fell disease, diphtheria, in its most malignant form—the throat being so terribly swollen as to prevent taking nourishment or talking. She was a beloved member of the Presbyterian Church, and the sympathy and love of the church and community were shown to-day in a large attendance at the funeral, and she leaves the blessed hope of the christian with mourning ones, to invite them on to join her and parents long gone before beyond this world of trouble and dying.

Every Moment's Wonderful Work.

Every moment that we live the work of destruction never ceases among what is scientifically called "the tissues" of which our bodies are composed. Every moment, if we are in health, the work of repairing this destructive process goes on with equal pace. When the vital force is great, more vigor is given to the blood and muscular force than the ordinary wear and tear of existence uses up. When the vital force falls from any cause, there ensues a wasting away, which, if not arrested, ends in decay and death. Physicians all declare that when these symptoms of decline set in, the only certain remedy is Cod Live Oil. But their patients, with almost equal unanimity, say that Cod Liver Oil is "too Nasty" they cannot take it. The only resource left is to obtain SCOTT'S EMULSION OF THE OIL with the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA. This is altogether free from disagreeable teaste and order, and is an unequaled tonic, for the nerves and brain.

Sale and Board Stable.

Having this day sold our Livery and Omnibus line to O'Kelley & Baker, we will give our personal attention to the sale of horses and mules, and will keep a first class boarding stable. Our stables will be open day and night, and especial attention given to transcient and monthly boarders.

Thankful for the patronage so liberally bestowed heretofore, we trust by strict attention, to merit a continuance of the same in our sale and boarding stables.

Unheard of Bargains!

AT THE INDEFATIGABLE ENDEAVORS TO PLEASE THE PUBLIC. SO HERE GOES.

Ye muses nine, inspire my pen,
To sing of Fayetteville street, No 10,
who tries his best to please his friends
And in his labors never ends,
Bargains he'll give you when you call
For No. 10 is all and all.
Of other houses you hear them talk;
In Fayetteville street just take a walk,
And only ask for No. 10,
Kept by the most ingenious of men,
And when his friends by chance drop in
Then forth he comes, Lord what a grin,
And to their wondering eyes displays
Such heaps of brackets and window shades.
His pictures are exposed to public view
And a variety of cord to suspend them too,
His looking glasses and toilet cases
Will help adorn your forms and faces;
Picture frames and mouldings too
In great variety, black, brown and blue.
His window cornices and lambrequins fine,
will make your rooms and parlor shine.
Perforated mottoes, and white holly baskets.
And every other sort of stuff,
Of which he hopes to have enough.
So now he bids you all adieu
And wishes a happy new year too.
And not forget

DAILY NEWS

WEDNESDAY, ... JANUARY, 8, 1879.

ORGAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY

The News Building, No. 6. Martin Street

THE reform Legislature of South Carolina sat only 23 days, the law limiting the session to 30 days. Besides doing all the necessary legislation a United States Senator was elected.

AN iconoclast in the Massachusetts Legislature didn't want to pay for a Chaplain of the House of Representa- in this reform year, when so many parsons occupy seats in that body.

SENATOR Everitt writes the following letter:

"I am not "pledged" to vote for Judge Merrimon nor for any man to the United States Senate."

THE reform movement has struck the Georgia Legislature. The Governor's salary has been reduced from $4,000 to $3,000; Superior Court Judges from $2,500 to $2,000, and other State officials in the same proportion. The country is getting down to a hard pan, and it is a healthy sign.

MEMMINGER, one of the S. C. witnesses boastingly named by Blaine in his letter to the outrage committee, publishes a card in the News and Courier, in which he says Blaine's confidence was sadly abused when he put his name among the witnesses to prove fraud at the reccent election. He was in the mountains during the summer, and knows no more about the election than Mr. Blaine does. Mr. Campbell, of Charleston, another of Blaine's witnesses. says has nothing to communicate which would help him.

THE week of prayer set apart by the ministers of the country begins auspiciously. Prayers are to be made for Christian union, for the church and its ministers and for reforms of every kind. It will be for the press that the people are to pray on Friday, and this day more than others will be of moment and interest to the many outside of the church. As a rule the representatives of the press are not attendants on divine service, their duties forbidding, but perhaps there is no class that would prove better subjects for prayers or be more appreciative in return for them.

ECONOMY and retrenchment are not the mere watch-words of a partisan campaign, but the expression of an abiding conviction in the hearts of the people. The lessons of adversity have had their uses. The compelled economy in each home is a daily reminder of the folly and sin of national, State and municipal extravagance. The denial of accustomed comforts to his family kindles and keeps alive in the citizen a resentment, as for a personal wrong, against any form of public wastefulness. This popular feeling is honorable, creditable and assuring. It must be recognized, respected and obeyed by all public servants.

THE "Moffett liquor law" under the "register system" yields a handsome revenue to the State of Virginia. The Auditor's report shows:

Total amount of tax by the register	$282,563 01
Total amount of special license tax	190,271.11
Total amount of specific and register tax	$472,834.14
Total amount of rebates allowed for the year ending April 30th, 1878, rs per report of Auditor Taylor..	99.877.14
	$372,957.00
Receipts under the old law..	262,195 25
In excess of the old law....	$110,761.75

Gov. Talbot's messsage to the reform Legislature of Massachusetts is a telling paper. He makes nearly the whole discussion contri bute to retrenchment, the demand for which he believes is "an abiding conviction" with the people, springing from a natural "resentment" against public waste amid private economy and strait. He deesn't want the people "mocked with a delusive show of retrenchment," and urges that for the result whatever it may be "the dominant party will be and ought to be held responsible." Gov. Talbot shows that retrenchment may be affected by a direct reduction of salaries, and proposes to begin with his own salary. He says: It seems to be conceded that, under the provisions of the constitution, the Legislature cannot reduce the salary of a chief magistrate while in office, but may establish in advance that of his successor. I desire to remove all embarrassment on the point by suggesting that this salary should be made to conform to the standard existing before the war, and by stating that the present executive will content himself with the sum you may deem "honorable" and "sufficient" for his successor. To the other expenses of the executive, I shall apply. the same rules that I should expect to be observed in subordinate departments."

We reprint an article from the Charleston News and Courier comparing quotations of leading articles of food on January 1st, 1878, with those of January 1st, 1879. The difference, which is very great, is set down as the effect of "resumption," but as gold on the first of January, 1878, was worth only $1.02½ in currency, we must look for some other cause than "resumption" to account for the difference. What that other cause or causes is or are, let wiser heads than ours conjecture:

"The farmers of South Carolina, and the townsfolk too, do not always realize what resumption means. They see that the price of what they have to sell goes steadily down, and that in wages for daily work there is a decline. But they do not always pause to note the relative difference, as it can be seen in the following quotations for the New Year's days of 1878 and 1879:

	1879	1878
Cl'r rib sides, per lb	4¾a5¼	8¼a9¼
Shoulders	3¼a4	6½a7½
Lard	6 3-4a7 1-2	9a10
Corn per bushel sacked,	62a70	72a75
Sugar, yellow C, per lb	7a7 1-2	7 1-4a8
Molasses, S H, per gal	24a32	28a30
Molasses, N O, per gal	35a45	45a55
Coffee, Rio, per lb	9 3-4a16	17a21
Salt per sack	85a90	85a1 00
Rice per lb	5a6¼	5½a5¾
Flour, super, per bbl	3 50a3 75	5 00a5 50

The decline here shown is remarkable. It is more than the average decline in the price of the Southern staples. And this view is confirmed when we look to other articles than mere bread and meat. Brown sheetings, in the year, have fallen from 12½ to 15 per cent., woollen goods 15 per cent., ready-made clothing 20 per cent., bleached cotton 15 per cent., shoes 10 per cent., agricultural implements 25 to 30 per cent. Besides this, the decline in the price of butter is from 30 cents a pound to 26 cents a pound, poultry (dressed) from 20 cents to 17 cents, eggs from 30 cents a dozen to 25 cents. These are Charleston prices, not Northern prices, and if they teach anything in the world they teach that money can be made on cotton at 10 cents a pound, and that we can live in the towns on the prices now ruling.

There is one thing to remember. To get the benefit of low prices we must work in the old fashioned ways. It will not do to live in the expectation of selling cotton at fifteen cents when it is probable that the selling price will be nine. We must practice hard-fisted economy and keep the crib full. Bread and meat first, and cotton last! Do this, and South Carolina will grow rich, for the statistics before us show that we can live as cheaply as before the war. Prints that sold before the war for ten cents a yard sell at five to six. In bleached cottons the purchasing power of a bale of raw cotton is greater than before the war, and is greater than ever before. A pound of raw cotton will now buy as much goods as two and a half pounds of cotton would buy thirty years ago. Hardpan and resumption are at the bottom of it. We sell cheaper, but we buy cheaper. South Carolina can live and grow rich. The State can rise more surely than any new State can rise. These are the conditions: Economy, hard work and hard money."

MISCELLANEOUS

SAVE YOUR HAIR | TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and daub the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon

A Letter From Gov. Vance.

Blue Ridge Blade.

In looking over an old copy of the "Last Ninety Days of the War" by the gifted Cornelia Phillips Spencer (a book by the way not enough bought hereabouts) we were struck with the following letter from the present Governor of the State, written, we are told by a friend, to old Gov. Swain, then President of the University. Let the predisposed bolters of the present Assembly read and, if necessary as a preventive measure, memorize it.

RALEIGH, January 2, 1864.

MY DEAR SIR: The final plunge which I have been dreading and avoiding—that is to separate me from a large number of my political friends, is about to be made. It is now a fixed policy of Mr. Holden and others to call a convention in May to take North Carolina back to the United States, and the agitation has already begun. Resolutions advocating this course were prepared a few days ago in the Standard office, and sent to Johnson county to be passed at a public meeting next week; and a series of meetings are to be held all over the State.

For any cause now existing, or likely to exist, I can never consent to this course.

Never. But should it be inevitable, and I be unable to prevent it, as I have no right to suppose I could, believing that it would be ruinous alike to the State and the Confederacy, producing war and devastation at home, and that it would steep the name of North Carolina in infamy, and make her memory a reproach among the nations, it is my determination quietly to retire to the army and find a death which will enable my children to say that their father was not consenting to their degradation. This may sound a little wild and romantic—to use no stronger expression—but it is for your eye only. I feel, sir, in many respects, as a son toward you; and when the many acts of kindness I have received at your hands are remembered, and the parental interest you have always manifested for my welfare, the feeling is not unnatural. I therefore approach you frankly in this matter.

I will not present the arguments against the proposed proceeding. There is something to be said on both sides. We are sadly pushed to the wall by the enemy on every side, it is true. That can be answered by military men and a reference to history. Many people have been worse off, infinitely, and yet triumphed. Our finances and other material resources are not in worse condition than were those of our fathers in 1780-'81, though repudiation is inevitable. Almost every argument against the chances of our success can be answered but one; that is the cries of women and little children for bread! Of all others, that is the hardest for a man of humane sentiments to meet, especially when the sufferers rejoin to your appeals to their patriotism. "You, Governor, have plenty; your children have never felt want." Still, no great political or moral blessing ever has been or can be attained without suffering. Such is our moral constitution, that liberty and independence can only be gathered of blood and misery, sustained and fostered by devoted patriotism and heroic manhood. This requires a deep hold on the popular heart; and whether our people are willing to pay this price for Southern independence, I am somewhat inclined to doubt. But, sir, in tracing the sad story of the backing down, the self-imposed degradation of a great people, the historian shall not say it was due to the weakness of their Governor, and that Saul was consenting unto their death! Neither do I desire, for the sake of a sentiment, to involve others in a ruin which they might avoid by following more ignoble counsels. As God liveth, there is nothing which I would not do or dare for the people who so far beyond my deserts have honored me. But in resisting this attempt to lead them back, humbled and degraded, to the arms of their enemies, who have slaughtered their sons, outraged their daughters, and wasted their fields with fire, and lay them bound at the feet of a master who promises them only life, provided they will swear to uphold his administration, and surrender to the hangman those whom they themselves placed in the position which constitutes their crime—in resisting this, I say, I feel that I am serving them truly, worthily.

In approaching this, the crisis of North Carolina's fate, certainly of my own career, I could think of no one to whom I could more appropriately go for advice than yourself, for the reasons before stated. If you can say anything to throw light on my path, or enable me to avoid the rocks before me, I shall be thankful. My great anxiety now, as I can scarcely hope to avert the contemplated action of the State, is to prevent civil war, and to preserve life and property as far as may be possible. With due consideration on the part of public men, which I fear is not to be looked for, this might be avoided. It shall be my aim, under God, at all events.

* * * * * * * * *

Believe me, my dear sir, yours sincerely,

Z. B. VANCE.

Who shall say that he, who wrote the "bold, brave, insolent words" copied above is not worthy to be U. S. Senator, or to be anything else which it is in our power as a people to give? The blood of twenty generations of patriots speak in these lines and we give to the author of them the salutation of the queenly Scotch woman,

"Glamis thou art, and Cawdor, and shalt be What thou art promised."

The South Wants Him in the Senate.

Norfolk Landmark.

The Charlotte Observer concludes a long and well-considered article on the Senatorial question, as follows:

To be brief, we need Gov. Vance in the Senate. The South is clamorous for his election; the people of North Carolina will be satisfied with nothing short of it. Let the Legislature do what is expected of it.

Our cotemporary hits the nail fairly on the head. The South wants him in the Senate. It is upon this ground that we have ventured to urge his claims and to advise our Carolina readers to support him to a man. We have no doubt he will be elected, and it will be a proud day for his State and section when his ringing voice is heard in the Senate of the United States, the doors of which were once barred against him by the fanatical enemies of his section.

Speer's Wine for Parties.

This Wine is decidedly the nicest we have ever seen or tasted. It is produced from the Oporto grape raised in this country, and possesses the very highest medicinal virtues and certainly, as an article of coverage, it is not, in our judgment, to be surpassed in color, taste, or any of the qualities which constitute a handsome and agreeable wine. It has become the choice wine for evening parties among the 5th Avenue families of New York. Salesroom 31 Warren street, N. Y. Williams & Haywood agents, Raleigh, N. C.

THE GENUINE
DR. C. McLANE'S
Celebrated American
WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist,
DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE
will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

—:o:—

DR. C. McLANE'S
LIVER PILLS
are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

LIVER

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person about three gallons) passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. Bile is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. MERRELL'S HEPATINE, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty looking skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking HEPATINE in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is given.

Also, Colds, Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and lungs. Read the testimonials of the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, Gov. Smith and Ex-Gov. Brown of Ga., Hon. Geo. BLOOD

Grave mistakes are made in the treatment of all diseases that arise from poison in the blood. Not one case of Scrofula, Syphilis, White Swelling, Ulcerous Sores and Skin Disease, in a thousand, is treated without the use of Mercury in some form. Mercury rots the bones, and the diseases it produces are worse than any other kind of blood or skin disease can be. DR. PEMBERTON'S STILLINGIA or QUEEN'S DELIGHT is the only medicine upon which a hope of recovery from Scrofula, Syphilis and Mercurial diseases in all stages, can be reasonably founded, and that will cure Cancer.

$10,000 will be paid by the proprietors if Mercury, or any ingredient not purely vegetable and harmless can be found in it.

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS

TRADE MARK (Registered.) TRADE MARK

A BRIEF HISTORY:

The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:

"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs Person's father. Mrs. Person lives in Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the Scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whiskey, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the head. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. wrote to Mrs. Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians. We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

UNEQUALLED AS A BLOOD PURIFIER.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my boy, who was troubled with 27 running sores, some of them quite large, and of a scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your remedy, he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite sound and healthy. As a TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL. Hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain, Very respectfully,
T. J. STOKES.

AS A TONIC AND ALTERATIV

MOORESVILLE, IREDELL Co., N. C.

Being desirous of adding my testimonia to others, concerning the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy for Scrofula, I take pleasure in saying that as a tonic and alterative I do not think it has an equal. I have fairly tested it, and after trying Vegetine, Sarsaparilla, Vinegar Bitters, and various other remedies, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it far superior to any TONIC I have ever used. When I commenced using Mrs Person's Remedy I was very weak, complection sallow, and now I am WELL.
Respectfully your friend,
MRS. H. T. BROWN.

THREE CHILDREN IN THREE WEEKS.

CASTALIA, N. C.

MRS JOE PERSON:

Dear Madame—Your letter has been received, and on account of being absent from home for a week or two, have not had the opportunity to answer it. I certainly will take great pleasure in doing all that is within my power towards getting you patients for treatment of Scrofula. I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you for curing my three little children. They took medicine from my family physician for about two years, with scarcely any relief at all. I tried your remedy, and in less than three weeks they were all perfectly cured, and have never shown any sign of breaking out again. I feel very thankful to you. I can safely say that I believe your remedy to be a certain cure for Scrofula. If I can ever be of any service to you in any way, I want you to be sure and call on me. Yours truly,
WM. H. ARRINGTON.

"It will Cure if Fairly Tested."

It gives me much pleasure to be able to state that I have derived an effectual cure of Scrofula from the use of Mrs. Joe Person's remedy for that disease. I had suffered from Scrofula for more than three years, and had despaired of ever getting well. I was treated during that time by three very eminent physicians, without any good result. I then went to the National Surgical Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., and was treated there more than two months, with no better result than my family physicians met with. After I returned from the Institute I was persuaded to try Mrs. Person's remedy, and I had not used it more than a week before I discovered its curative and healing properties. My sores soon began to heal, and the color of my skin changed as fast as the sores healed. I had not thought of ever getting well again, but my hopes increased, my low spiritedness fled before the remedy, and I am now enjoying splendid health and am in good spirits. The remedy is mild as a purgative, and a strong tonic; it will heal the most stubborn sore in three weeks if taken regularly. It is my opinion that it should be taken some time after the sore is healed, to remove the cause of the sore. It should be taken regularly by all means, for I have sometimes neglected it, from the pressure of business, and in all cases found that the cure already made would commence to retrograde, and for this alone it should be taken regularly until an effectual cure is completed. Nothing should prevent regularity in the use of the remedy and it should be taken at the proper time. I would recommend to all who are suffering from Scrofula to try it. It will surely cure you if you give it a fair test. I speak from experience, and not from hearsay. I am a grateful recipient of a cure from the use of it and I am under many and lasting obligations to Mrs. Person for the great relief I have obtained from its use. Sufferers, try it and be cured, is my advice.
I am, respectfully,
JAMES A. MORRIS.
KITTRELLS, N. C.

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier. It is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction, while my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood and probably for other diseases.

A CASE OF CANCER.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON:

Dear Madam—I have been using your Remedy for scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine seemed to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this, rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.
Very truly and Respectfully,

The ruins of the houses on Fayetteville street, belonging to the estate of the late B. F. Moore, which were burned not long since, were yesterday torn down. County Commissioners.

The Board met at 10 o'clock yesterday at the Mayor's office.

A good deal of routine business, among which was the order for a new road in Wake Forest Township, from W. B. Dunn's to the Franklin line, was transacted.

The new Superintendent of the Poor House was paid $500 for support of poor. Commissioner Mills H. Brown was appointed to settle with the late incumbent of that office.

The Registrars of the late election were paid $7.50 each, in full for services.

Capt. C. H. Scott was appointed County Surveyor vice W. B. Fowler, elected, who failed to qualify.

It was ordered that scrip be issued to those tax-payers who had paid taxes upon the late decision of Judge Seymour, reducing the taxes of the county. Said scrip to be for the difference between 84 cents and 66 2-3 cents on property, and between $2.52 and $2.00 on the poll. These differences—17 1-3 and 52 cents—to be receivable in county taxes for 1879. The Clerk of the Board was ordered to issue this scrip, he being governed by the tax list in the hands of the Sheriff for collection, in ascertaining who paid taxes before said decision, to whom alone this scrip shall be issued.

The appointment of a Constable to the grand jury was decided to be a prerogative of the Sheriff.

T. F. Devereux, Esq., was appointed to look after bills in the county, in cases where paupers and lunatics have been sent to other counties.

The Board, sitting as a school committee, transacted a deal of business in relation of the county schools, such as the appointment of committees, etc.

Some business in relation to the Poor House was also looked after, and the bond of Mr. Allen, the new keeper, was accepted.

The Board then adjourned until to-day at 10 o'clock.

Board of Aldermen.

An adjourned meeting of the Board was held last evening.

The committee on insurance of the city hall reported that a reduction could be obtained in the rates, provided the scenery in the hall was removed. On motion of Alderman Blake it was decided to reduce the amount of insurance to $15,000.

A resolution was offered and adopted that the light committee put the lamps in repair and that the lamplighter attend to them properly, under the direction of the committee, who will promptly report any negligence on his part.

The committee on cisterns reported that the need of these was pressing, and that they must be built if it is desired to save the city from destruction. The report was adopted and it was decided to build five cisterns in the streets, of a capacity of 30,000 each, to be located at such points as may be chosen by the Street Committee, Fire Warden and Chief Engineer of the Fire Department. It was ordered that an advertisement be at once inserted, asking for bids for these cisterns, such bids to be opened on the 22nd instant, by the aforenamed parties.

A license as auctioneers was granted Towles & Monie.

Renfrow & Lawrence were granted license to retail spirits.

The Board then adjourned.

A DISASTROUS FIRE.

A Work of Ruin--Two Stores and two Private Residences Burned.

As was stated in the NEWS of yesterday, the alarm of fire was given yesterday morning about 3.15 o'clock, from the store of Lewis & Jones, on Hillsboro Avenue, near the railway crossing. The building was in a brief space of time a mass of flame, and the store next door, owned by Rush Jolly, caught at once. The great distance caused the time before the fire companies reached the scene to be long, and the flames spread west to the residence of R. W. Best, Esq., which was soon destroyed. East of the burning buildings, on the same block, stood the residence of the venerable Mrs. Drake. It was at first thought that this would be saved, but it soon shared the fate of the other buildings.

The store of Lewis & Jones was a two story frame building, with a stock of general merchandise. The entire contents were destroyed; nothing was saved. The loss on stock was about $4,000, on building $1500. On the former there was an insurance of $2,000, in the Etna. No insurance was held on the building.

The store of Mr. Jolly was a small frame, one story structure, but filled with a stock of goods valued at about $1500. The building was worth about $500. Both were a total loss. No insurance was held on either.

The dwelling house of Mr. Best was a handsome edifice, of wood, two stories high. It was entirely destroyed, but all the household property was saved. The loss on the building, on which no insurance was held, is about $3,000.

The house of Mrs. Drake, which was one of the landmarks of the street, was also uninsured. It was of wood, two stories in height, and valued at about $1,500. The furniture, etc., was saved.

It was feared for a time that the fire would spread to the next block, but the firemen were prepared for it. The Chemical engine was first on the scene followed by the Victor and Hook and Ladder Companies. All did good work as far as possible. The hose of the engines was so frozen that it required thawing to be fit for use. There were no water facilities, a well being the only means anywhere near by. So all that could be done was to prevent the spread of the flames, and this was difficult, as a great shower of heavy flakes of fire fell for many blocks away.

Mr. Willie Lewis, a son of A. M. Lewis, Esq., and one of the proprietors, slept over Jones & Lewis' store. About 3 o'clock a butcher was driving by and heard a noise as of some one walking. A moment after some one ran to a front window. He drove on and soon heard the cry of fire. Not long afterwards Mr. Lewis jumped out of the window, fell on a shed and thence to the sidewalk. The fall broke his right arm, besides injuring his hip seriously. He was also badly burned. A gentleman took the sufferer across the street where he was looked after. He remained unconscious and speechless, from the time till 11 o'clock in the morning when he spoke incoherently. The physicians pronounce his case a serious one indeed, as the least hopeful of recovery. The loss by the fire proves a great hardship to those upon whom it fell, who nearly all lose their all.

VEGETINE.

Will Cure Rheumatism.

URBANA O., Feb. 19. 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS, Boston, Mass.:—

Dear Sir,—I feel greatly indebted to your excellent medicine, VEGETINE, for what it has done for me. I have been subjected to Rheumatism all my life. Was attacked with it three years ago, and suffering terrible pains in my chest, back, and limbs for six or eight months, at which time I commenced using VEGETINE on the advice of a friend, who had been entirely cured by it. I had scarcely used a half bottle until the pain had left me, and my general health began to improve rapidly under influence of this great blood purifier. I had also suffered dreadfully from a Nasal Catarrh for seven or eight years After taking the first bottle of VEGETINE I noticed a great change for the better. The constant pains and heaviness that I had over my eyes for years disappeared, and the discharge of mucus from the head ceased. My appetite got better, and strength seemed to come with every dose of medicine. Too much cannot be said in its favor; and I always take pleasure in recommending it to my friends who may be suffering from any disease of the blood, for I feel satisfied if they try it they are sure of a cure.

Respectfully,
J. H. RHODES.

Vegetine

Will Cure Rheumatism.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 14 1877.

H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I wish to inform you what Vegetine has done for family. Eighteen months ago my daughter had a severe attack of rheumatism, and a friend who had used the vegetine advised her to try it, and she did so with perfect success, for after using a few bottles of it she became entirely cured. I am myself, at the present time, using the Vegetine for Rheumatism with good success. My other daughter has also used the Vegetine for catarrh and nervous debility and has been greatly benefitted by its use. I have also recommended it to many others with good success; and I honestly believe that the Vegetine is the best medicine for the above named diseases that there is, and I always wish to keep it in my house as a family medicine.

Vegetine

A Family Medicine.

CINCINNATI, O., April 11, 1877.

Dear Sir,—I have been troubled and suffered a great deal from catarrh. I have tried many remedies; they did not cure me, and benefited me but very little; and, dear sir, by using your medicine called the Vegetine I have been cured. My niece was cured entirely of Rheumatism by using your medicine, Vegetine, so she is able to attend to her studies at school. She feels very thankful for your medicine, for she been a great sufferer from rheumatism. I would say to one and all, try the Vegetine for such complaints. A few bottles will cure you.

Yours truly,
DAVID ARNET,
ELIZABESH ARNET (his wife).

JESTIE CORT (his niece),
Everetts St., Cincinnati, O.

Mr. Arnet is a large real estate owner, a wealthy man, an old resident, and well known in Cincinnati.

Rheumatism is a Disease of the Blood.

The blood in this disease, is found to contain an excess of fibrin. Vegetine acts by converting the blood from its diseased condition to a healthy circulation. One bottle of Vegetine will give relief, but to effect a permanent cure it must be taken regularly, and may take several bottles, especially in cases of long standing.
